Salumatics Grows Team, Announces Marketing Appointment

Mississauga, ON – Salumatics Inc., a Canadian electronic health records company, today announced the appointment of Heather Edmonds Penstone to the position of Marketing Supervisor. Ms. Penstone has over 20 years experience marketing computer software and services across a variety of industries including healthcare, and will manage Salumatics' marketing communications. Ms. Penstone was most recently with healthcare information systems company Healthphone HSAGlobal.

"I am delighted to welcome Heather to the Salumatics team," said Allan Magnacca, President and CEO of Salumatics. "Alongside our sales teams in Toronto and Montreal, this will allow us to actively pursue the market vision that we have established for Salumatics."

Reflecting their recent announcement of selection by Toronto's Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre to provide health records conversion services, Salumatics continues to actively market their clinical information management systems and services across Canada and internationally.
